Historical Marker is Dedicated in Gautier

by Valerie Richard

An historical marker honoring Jean Baptiste Baudreau dit Graveline was dedicated at an impressive ceremony in Gautier on October 12, 1985. The marker is located at the North Roadside Park 11-10 West on the West Pascagoula River. Contributions from members of the Urban Baudreau Graveline Genealogical Association, members of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Historical Society, members of the Jackson County Genealogical Society, persons from several parts of the United States and Canada as well as prominent citizens of the Jackson and Harrison County area and the Bayou la Poudre, Alabama area were recognized. These interested people helped their contributions made possible the erection of the marker.

Among the dignitaries taking part in the ceremony were Senator Stephen Hale of Jackson County and Senator Tommy Collett of Harrison County. Both of these men are descendants of Graveline. The marker was unveiled by Betty Rodger and Mary Adkison, members of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Urban Baudreau Graveline Genealogical Association. These ladies were instrumental in arranging the tribute to the prominent colonist. A special guest at the ceremony was Robert Graveline, President of Urban B. Graveline Genealogical Association of Palmer, Massachusetts. Following the ceremony at the site of the marker, a luncheon at the Tiki Restaurant in Gautier was held and also a tour of the Oldfield plantation. A dinner in Biloxi was held later in the evening.

Information contained on the historical marker reads as follows:

GRAVELINE

In 1718 this area was settled

by Jean Baptiste Baudreau dit

Graveline, born 1671 in Montreal.

Arrived with d'Yberville at Port Maurepas aboard the Renome'e Jan. 8, 1700.

Prominent colonist, adventurer, merchant.

Graveline marker needs support for campaign

Two-thirds of the needed funds for the Graveline Historical Marker have been donated by Graveline descendants and friends, according to Betty Rodgers of Pascagoula, who is helping shepherd the project.

"With only $283 more to be raised by our Coast Chapter of the Graveline Society, our group is optimistic that by Sept. 1 the goal of $820 will be reached," Mrs. Rodgers said.

Donations for the marker can be sent to Graveline Historical Marker, P.O. Box 1508, Pascagoula MS 39568-1508. For more information on the project or the chapter, contact Sammy Leslie Jr. or Mrs. Rodgers in Pascagoula, or Wallace Richards or Willie Ladnier in Gautier.

"Any assistance in this project of historical interest will be greatly appreciated," Mrs. Rodgers said.

Graveline marker to be installed

The descendants of Jean Baptiste Baudreau dit Graveline are raising funds to erect a historical marker on I-10. The marker would be located on the west bank of the Pascagoula River at the north rest stop on the interstate.

Dedication of the marker, which will cost $800, is set for Oct. 12. The project is being sponsored by the Coast Chapters of the Urbain Baudreau Graveline Genealogy Society, a non-profit national organization.

The marker will read: "Graveline. In 1718 this area was settled by Jean-Baptiste Baudreau dit Graveline born 1671 Montreal. Arrived with Iberville at Fort Maurepas on the Renommée Jan. 8, 1700. Prominent colonist — brave adventurer — merchant."

Mary L. Adkinson is general chair of the project, with chairs assigned from cities along the coast. These include Betty Rodgers and Sammy Leslie Jr. of Pascagoula, Moss Point and Gautier; Elaine Miller of Ocean Springs; and Yates Simonson and David Sprinkle of Bayou La Batre and Mobile County in Alabama.

Donations may be made by mailing them to Graveline Historical Marker, P.O. Box 1508, Pascagoula MS 39568, or by contacting one of the project chairs.

Luncheon changes noted

Plans for the luncheon to be held Saturday in conjunction with the dedication of an historical marker on Interstate 10 have been changed.

The location of the luncheon has been changed to the Tiki Restaurant in Gautier. No reservations will be required for the 1 p.m. fete, so anyone who had not already made arrangements to attend may now do so.

The luncheon is being held in connection with the placement of an historical marker at the I-10 rest stop on the north side of the highway, just west of the Pascagoula River. The marker will honor the memory of Jean-Baptiste Baudreau dit Graveline, and the ceremonies of the day are being sponsored by his descendants.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

Your complete coverage of the recent ceremony and activities concerning the historical Graveline marker was appreciated by myself and family member. The photos were exceptional. I feel sure those who participated in the planning and erection of the marker were pleased with the informative articles and accompanying photos.

Sincerely,
Valeria D. Richard

RETURN TO ROOTS — About 70 people, most of them descendants of the 17th century Canadian Urbain Baudreau Graveline, recently rededicated the historic marker honoring Urbain's son, Jean Baptiste, an early settler of Gautier. The marker is located at the welcome center on the north side of Interstate 10 at Martin Bluff. Members of the Urbain Graveline Genealogical Society from throughout Canada and the United States had the ceremony during annual reunion in Mobile Oct. 6-10 and spent a day in Jackson County. By the marker (from left) are Graveline descendants Jay Higginbotham of Mobile, Ala.; Robert Graveline, Palmer, Mass., president of the society; Mary Addinison of Biloxi and Betty Rodgers of Forts Lake. Jean Baptiste Baudreau de Graveline came here with Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville's second voyage. He owned considerable land in Jackson County. Following the rededication, the group lunched at River Docks in Pascagoula. This is the second time the descendants have met on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. They usually gather in areas settled in the early periods of New France, where the children of Urbain and his wife Mathurine Juliet, migrated.

ANTOINE BRAUD

Baudreau

The following signature was sent to me by Winston DeVille. It is from a document dated 16 Feb. 1768, addressed to "Monseigneur Louia (Governor Ulloa). It informs the governor that the writer, Antoine BRAUD, is prepared to "go to the land judged appropos."

At first I suspected it was done by a notary, but according to DeVille, not so.

ACADIANS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

At the NGS conference in Columbus, a genealogist from Mt. Pleasant, S.C. stopped at my table and shared with me that she knew of a list of "12 Acadians at Christchurch." She wasn't sure there were names shown, but would let me know. I haven't gotten back to her to ask. If she comes up with it I'll print the list.

BRAINTREE, MASS. RESEARCH

Ron Frazier (dit Fougere) of 132 Middle St., Braintree, MA 02184, wrote that he would be willing to research Braintree information for members (but wasn't able to help Viola Andrew on her 1981 query). Some Acadian exiles were sent there.

ACADIAN SAILORS

In the July, 1985 AGE was a list of Acadian sailors by Fr. Dennis Boudreau. Ron wrote that his great uncle, Charles FORREST, b. ca 1870 at Arichat, was lost at sea on the schooner Alva, which disappeared with all hands on 26 Jan. 1902. He was living at Gloucester at the time.

Incidentally, he has the DeFOREST and FOUGERE coats of arms.

BEAUDREAU DIT GRAVELINE UPDATE (contd.)

Incidentally, Urbain's sons Paul (who married Marie TESSIER) and Gabriel (who married Marie Catherine FORESTIERE), both relocated to the Mobile, Alabama ca 1713, with their families.

FRENCH RESEARCH

Mr. Lionel Poirier, 9515 Singleton Dr., Bethesda, MD 20817, is collecting any POIRIER data he can find. He sent me a printout of what he has collected to date (information on those found after the Deportation of 1755). Many of them I was able to fit into my working copy of A. D. II.

He also gave me the name of a person who is in charge of La Maison de l'Acadie in LaChaussee, France. This is a group serving as a center for Acadian genealogy in France. This lady is bi-lingual. Her name is Mme. Michel Touret, 21 rue Portail Chaussee, 86200, Loudun, Fr. Tel. (49) 9801-16.

ACADIAN TOUR

Below is a reservation form for the tour of Acadia for next Fall. Tentative plans call for a ten-day tour beginning on September 12. Rendezvous location is Halifax, Nova Scotia and will include a bus tour of Nova Scotia, Cap Breton, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. I am sure that at this point Msgr. Theriault's itinerary is flexible enough to include points of interest requested by a majority of our tour. Deadline for sending in your reservation is October 31, 1986. Cost of the tour was quoted as $400 US, which includes the ferry, hotels and meals. It did not include transportation.

Cajun movie faces U.S. opening

Pitre says Cajuns like portrayal

By STEVE LEBLANC
Staff Writer

"Belizaire the Cajun," a feature-length film produced and directed by south Louisianian Glen Pitre and filmed in Acadiana, will be well-received by critics when it is released nationally in a couple of months, Pitre predicted Friday.

Test screenings of the romantic adventure film in New York and Los Angeles have pleased reviewers, while area residents seem satisfied with the way Cajuns are portrayed, Pitre reported.

The movie, which stars Armand Assante and Gail Youngs and features a cameo appearance by Robert Duvall, has run for 10 weeks in Lafayette.

"Around here there seems to be almost a sigh of relief with the way the film portrays Cajuns and their lifestyle," said Pitre, a resident of Cut Off, a Lafourche Parish town.

Belizaire is, among other things, the story of a village healer with a friend in trouble with local law enforcement authorities who gets in trouble himself.

Reviewers privy to advance screening in Los Angeles and New York liked what they watched, Pitre said before Friday's local premier at Vista Village Cinema in Opelousas.

"For a lot of people unfamiliar with Cajuns and the culture," Pitre said, "the movie is their first window to it. It is something they don't know much about, and it seems to fascinate them."

"Belizaire the Cajun" producer and director Glen Pitre

Pitre said the film will be released in Los Angeles, New York and Toronto in the near future.

"We'll get the national reviews, and we'll go on from there," said Pitre, who co-produced, directed and wrote the script for Belizaire.

"We expect to do well," said Pitre. "As far as numbers and ratios go, it's still too early to tell, but we expect to turn a profit."

The film is Pitre's first feature-length, 35-millimeter film.

"This is by far the most ambitious project," said Pitre, who is the principal investor.

Some 35 other Louisianians — ranging from physicians and attorneys to sugar cane farmers, also provided financing, Pitre said.

Viewers of Friday's premiere left impressed, said Rick Tiger, manager of Vista Village Cinema.

A crowd of about 170 attended the Friday night debut.

"People came away saying what a nice show it was," Tiger reported Saturday.

"It has comedy, romance, drama, action; it has some of everything."

Area residents seem generally pleased with the portrayal of Cajun life, Pitre said.

"This film doesn't depict Cajuns as vicious swamp killers or anything like that," Pitre said earlier Friday. "It's more realistic."

Meanwhile, the Cajun movie producer has another movie script in the works.

Offshore will provide a present-day look at south Louisiana and its ties to "the high seas," Pitre said.

BEAUDREAU DIT GRAVELINE UPDATE

Mr. H. F. Guidroz of Houston, TX sent a followup on the article by Fr. Dennis Boudreau regarding Jean-Baptiste BEAUDREAU dit GRAVELINE (see January, April, July 1985 issues). The following is what he wrote:

Jean Baptiste BEAUDREAU dit GREVELINE was born 1670 at Montreal and went to France in his early years and about 1708 married "Suzanne" - a Protestant in LaRoche), who died in Mobile (Massacre Island), Alabama in October 1713, three years after giving birth to their only son, Jean Baptiste, who was broken at the wheel ca 1752 in punishment for his part in an attempted insurrection. Jean Baptiste I bought a ship ca 1709 in LaRoche and took it to Mobile with Suzanne. There he sold the ship to Bienville and Dartaguiette for 2000 livres.

Jean Baptiste I had a son "John" ca 1720 by an Indian Squaw (see his will in AGE). No further record.

Jean Baptiste I married on 1 March 1734 to Marie Catherine VINCONNEAU, d/o Louis and Catherine DOUSSAU. They had a daughter, Catherine Louise, born 1742, who married Joseph BOUZAGE, great-great-grandfather of my wife, Elise BOSARGE.

Dear Friends and Kin,

This summer has produced a bumper crop of news items for AGE's readers. Some of you have been traveling on vacation/research trips and as invited, have buzzed me on the phone while passing on I-75. I missed Mary Ann Barclay on her way through to Indiana by just one hour as we ourselves were returning from our first Elderhostel at St. Pete, Fla....Ledora Hernandez called from a pay phone just off the interchange, juggling an umbrella in the rain...Denise Drake, Louisiana president of the Ataxia Foundation, called from near Louisville, where she was staying en route to Canada for a meeting...Billie and Norris Dupre of Houma were in northern Kentucky for a family reunion and stopped over...a COMEAU in Louisville found me after a long and almost fruitless search.

Shortly after we returned from Florida (sorry I didn't check in with you Floridian Cajuns - time was pretty structured), Jim had emergency bypass surgery, from which he is recovering very satisfactorily. However, this event has altered our lifestyle quite a bit. I am not used to having my husband poking around the house during working hours, and am getting a taste of what retirement will be like. Actually, he's good about staying put. The worst time I have is chauffering him around town. Being used to occupying the driver's seat, he does get a bit hyper about how I drive, muttering occasionally that he wonders how I'm still alive.

I want to apologize for what must seem to be ingratitude, to the American-Canadian Genealogical Society for their generosity in donating to AGE the unbound pages of the Madawaska Registers. They have had a new set bound for their library's use and knew I was interested in this material. A hearty thanks from all the AGE members who have and will benefit from the information in those priceless pages!

✓ Father Dennis Boudreau of Woonsocket has been elected Vice President of the American-French Genealogical Society in Pawtucket, RI. He also recently celebrated his seventh anniversary as a priest. He sent us an article clarifying the distinction between BOUDREAU and BEAUDREAU dit GRAVELINE, appearing serially beginning with this issue.

Well, they're still at it (Bayley & Halbert's/Sharon Taylor)!. My own stepmother received a flyer on our BALASA line, and immediately ordered the book, hoping to find more about that unusual surname. Then she wrote me that she had done it. One of our readers sent me a clipping from the Times Picayune by a columnist covering the approach

As many of you are aware, the Acadian flag was established on August 15, 1884 at the Marian Congress of Acadians at Miscouche, PEI. The gold star on the flag represents the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary over the Acadians. The cities of Fredericton and Edmunston in New Brunswick had joined in the commemoration of this centennial by electing to fly the Acadian flag during this centennial year. There has been some controversy in those cities about showing preferential treatment. Seems there are other ethnic groups that feel their flag should be flying, too. Among them is the flag of the Republic of Madawaska. It has six stars representing the founding peoples of Madawaska (Acadians, Irish, Indians, French Canadians, English and American).

Our thanks to Richard Lord of Presque Isle, Maine, who sent me several articles covering this subject in Maine newspapers.

The controversy has risen to such a torrid pitch that a suggestion has been made to form a separate Acadian party. The Anglophones got into the act, saying the Union Jack has a place on the flag pole, too. They feel there is discrimination in favor of the French nationality in the job market.

And Caraquet, N.B. has introduced a daily French-language newspaper, l'Acadie Nouvelle, to replace the defunct Evangeline.

Father Dennis Boudreau shared his experience in the commemoration of the anniversary of the flag. Two BOUDREAU priests, his ancestors Charles-Nazaire and Nazaire-Antoine, were the main celebrants of the solemn High Mass at that Marian Congress 100 years ago that chose the Acadian flag. He divulged the story behind the anthem of the Acadians, "Ave Maris Stella."

"During a riot in the city of Rome, a mob came to the house where St. Bridge lived. One of the leaders of the mob spoke of burning her alive. Bridget turned to God in prayer, asking whether or not she should flee the city. The answer she received was, 'It does not matter if they plot your death. My power will break the malice of your enemies. If my enemies crucified me, it is because I permitted it.' To these words of the Lord, she heard the Blessed Virgin add 'Sing as a group the Ave Maris Stella and I'll guard you from every danger.'"

Following is the Ave Maris Stella in both the original Latin and the translation of it:

BOUDREAU or BEAUDREAU ?

by Rev. Dennis M. Boudreau

During the past few years, I have received letters from many people, particularly from researchers in the Midwest, searching for missing Boudreau ancestors. Thinking they were descendants of our Acadian Michel Boudrot, after trying to find a pair of names which fit, in most cases, they were not Acadian descendants at all, but descendants of the Canadian BEAUDREAU dit GRAVELINE family from the Montréal and Richelieu Valley area of Québec Province. In many documents: among which include baptismal, marriage and census records, the Beaudreau family members often went by the spelling BAUDREAU or BOUDREAU, which has continued to be a source of confusion to many of those who are presently trying to research their family backgrounds.

Urbain Baudreau, the son of Jean Baudreau and Marie Chauveau, was born towards 1631 or 1633 in the town of Gravelines in the Flandres section of France, hence, the nickname Graveline attached to the surname in most instances. Many of the later generations of this family have adopted this nickname as their family's surname today, especially in the Eastern United States.

In 1652, the colony of Montréal (then known as Ville-Marie) was under numerous attacks from the Iroquois Indians, which diminished its population to less than 100 persons. The Governor-General, M. de Maisonneuve had decided to return to France to recruit more colonists for the region, and after a meeting with M. Jérôme le Royer de la Dauversière at La Flèche, approximately 100 miles from Paris, 153 men were recruited to return to Canada. Among them, was a young man living in the town of Clermont, named Urbain Baudreau. On the 20th of May 1653, he signed a contract agreeing to settle at Montréal, serving the colony for five years to defend it against the Indians and to help clear it for farmland. His annual salary was to be 75 pounds with a 45 pound advance payment. On the 30th of that month, the group boarded the ship St-Nazaire, bound for Canada, yet only after a few days at sea, the ship began to take on water and had to return to port.

When the ship set sail again on the 20th of July, 42 of the 153 recruits failed to appear, obviously for fear of drowning. Among the passengers was the foundress of the Congrégation Notre-Dame, Sister Marguerite Bourgeoys, who in her own records noted that the crossing was indeed a difficult one. While at sea, the ship met with several storms, eight died from sickness on board, and to make matters worse, when the St-Nazaire finally reached Québec on the 22nd of September, as it approached the port of Québec, it hit a submerged object in the harbor (probably a rock) and began to sink. Having saved the rest of the passengers and their cargo, the St-Nazaire was burned to clear the passage for future ships.

After their arrival at Québec, the Governor-General of that city wanted to keep these men, rather than send them off to be killed by Indians in Montréal, however, M. de Maisonneuve contacted the authorities in Paris, and two months later, on the 16th of November 1653, the young recruits were finally sent to their proper destination. In 1658, at the end of his five year contract, Urbain returned to France, but returned a year later to Montréal, to settle there permanently. In 1663, he was chosen a corporal in the militia, and from 1663 to

DISCREPANCIES & CORRECTIONS FOR ARSENAULT'S HISTOIRE ET GENEALOGIE
DES ACADIENS

AGE does not claim to be the final authority in the following corrections. However, in most cases the researcher has concentrated on the surname in question and has authenticated his or her findings.

from Clarence T. Breaux, Metairie, La.:

p. 2592. Arsenault shows a third marriage (ca 1772) to Genevieve HEBERT for Francois SIMON dit SIMONEAUX, but does not show this third marriage on p. 801. In fact, a third marriage did not take place; Francois was buried 24 July 1791 at Donaldsonville, La. (ASC-4,8) while his widow (and second wife), Marie CORPORON died 27 Sept. 1802 at Plattenville, La. (ASM-3,33). As to the children they were all from Marie CORPORON, but there is no church or census record showing a second Marguerite (b. 1775 per Arsenault). Marie was born ca 1771 per census and not 1774, and Francoise born ca 1775 per census, actually 28 Dec. 1774 (not 1776). Furthermore, there was another child, Jacques, born late 1762 or early 1763, per 7 July 1763 Acadian census at Oxford, Md., where family is listed.

p. 2593. Francoise Appolonie SIMON, b. 1774 (see above); change marriage to 10 Oct. 1793 at Plattenville, LA (ASM-2,4).

H. F. Guidroz of Houston, TX thinks he has found a discrepancy in Arsenault:

p. 1378 - Jean DOIRON m. 2 Feb. 1752, b. 1729, s/o Philippe DOIRON/Marie GUIDRY, marries Anne Marguerite CELLIER, d/o Pierre & Marie Josephe LEJEUNE.

p. 1135 shows Anne CELLIER, b. 1694, wife of Jean DOIRON, s/o Philippe and of Marie GUIDRY, with children Joseph, b. 1733, and Paul Olivier, b. 1755. Was Anne 58 years old when she married Jean, age 23? Could she have had children after that age?

Rev. Dennis Boudreaux, Woonsocket, RI, wrote:

Vol. IV, p. 1617: gives Joseph BERGERON dit DAMBOISE married to Angelique SAINDON as "without doubt" son of Michel and of Marie DUGAS. According to St. Jean-Baptiste parish of Ile Verte repertoire of marriages, where Joseph's second marriage occurred to Genevieve COTE, it states that he was widower of Angelique SAINDON and son of Joseph-Augustin BERGERON-DAMBOISE and Marie Rose MELANSON, who appear on p. 1615 of Arsenault.

BERGERON DISCREPANCY

Adrien Bergeron's "Le Grand Arrangement des Acadiens au Quebec" vol. 5, p. 89 shows Agnes LEBLANC, d/o Pierre LEBLANC/Francoise LANDRY, married to Pierre GAUDET; Arsenault and BRDA show GAUTEROT. Bergeron does not show the unmarried children, and also omitted Marie, married 1748 Grand Pre to Francois GAUTEROT. The unmarried children were 1667, he was elected syndic and procurator of the settlers of the colony, a post similar to the office of mayor.

At the age of 33, on the 20th of October 1664, Urbain Baudreau married Marguerite Juillet, the 15 year old daughter of Blaise Juillet and Marie-Antoinette Liercour. Blaise Juillet, originally from Avignon, France, drowned with his friend, Mathurin Soulard, while attempting to save themselves from the fierce Iroquois four years earlier in 1660. Of Urbain and Marguerite's marriage were born the following nine children:

1. Gabriel, b. 24/7/1666 - Montréal, PQ
2. Marie-Ursule, b. 8/2/1668 - Montréal, PQ
3. Jean-Baptiste, b. 18/5/1671 - Montréal, PQ; died young.
4. Elizabeth, b. 3/5/1673 - Montréal, PQ
5. Marie-Anne, b. 29/8/1675 - Montréal, PQ
6. Jacques, b. ca. 1680 - Montréal, PQ
7. Paul, b. 19/5/1682 - Montréal, PQ
8. Marie-Madeleine, b. 19/6/1686 - Montréal, PQ
9. Jean-Baptiste, b. 13/6/1690 - Montréal, PQ

In 1687, Urbain bought two lots of land at Montréal, and another in December of 1689. After years of hard work, raising his family, and being involved in the political affairs of the new colony, he died at Montréal on the 28th of January 1695, a wealthy man for his time, and one who never really received the recognition that he deserved in Canadian history, for his significant rôle in the history of Ville Marie.

In 1696, his widow, Marguerite Baudreau removed to the city, transferring her other property to their son Paul, with the understanding that he would take care of her for the remaining years of her life. She died at Montréal on the 6th of March 1723. Cyprien Tanguay, in his DICTIONNAIRE GENEALOGIQUE notes that their son Gabriel was engaged in commerce along the Mississippi River, and was one of the principal founders of Mobile, Alabama. This can be attested to by the fact that of his marriage to Catherine Forestier, were born a family of all daughters, of which only one marriage, that of Marie-Josette, took place at Notre-Dame-de-Laprairie. Where the other daughters married, I have not been able to locate at present, so perhaps this footnote is true, and they married in the central United States. The largest descendance of Beaudreau's is the family of Jean-Baptiste and Françoise Bazinet, whose descendants were very numerous in the Richelieu Valley area, and who have migrated to New England and the Midwest, during the Industrial Revolution and textile era, as well as, in the years following the Richelieu Valley insurrection.

It should be noted that the Urbain Beaudreau-Graveline Family has their own Family Association, which publishes a periodic newsletter for its members: THE DESCENDANTS, from which much of the information for this short exposé on Urbain Baudreau was borrowed. Any of the Baudreau/Beaudreau/Boudreau dit Graveline descendants should contact this organization for membership and further information concerning this family, by writing to:

E. Robert Graveline, President
33 Sykes Street
Palmer, MA. 01069

or

Marie Genest, Secretary
19 Arbor Street
Ludlow, MA. 01056

(It is possible that these officers no longer hold these positions, as the family association holds annual elections each May, and I was working from a 1979 xerox copy of their newsletter for this article. They may have changed since, yet I'm sure they can be of assistance, putting people in touch with the right officers).

As stated, the annual family association meeting is held each May, and members hail from across the United States and Canada.

For those with BOUDREAU surnames being researched especially in the Midwest United States area, we invite you to please peruse the following descending genealogy of the BEAUDREAU dit GRAVELINE family, with hopes that you will be able to match up some of the names with them, as a great many descendants of that family went by the name of BOUDREAU rather than BEAUDREAU. Should you discover that you tie in, know that you are a Canadian BEAUDREAU dit GRAVELINE descendant, rather than an Acadian BOUDREAU descendant, and in either case, be proud of your particular heritage!!!

TWO FAMOUS GRAVELINE DESCENDANTS

Joseph Graveline of Missouri, was President Jefferson's personal interpreter to the Indians, whose diplomacy saved the Lewis and Clark expedition from an Indian massacre and allowed it to go on to open the West for expansion of the United States.

Prime Minister of Canada, Elliot Trudeau is also a descendant of Urbain Baudreau-Graveline through his daughter, Elizabeth.

WRITING YOUR MEMOIRSPASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION

I mentioned in a past issue that we attended our first Elderhostel and one of the courses was "How to Write Your Memoirs."

The instructor of that course had a book in production, called "How to Write the Story of Your Life," which has just arrived at our home. After taking the course and checking the book, I decided to recommend it to any of you considering putting your life story down in print. The author, Frank Thomas, makes it easy by offering "memory sparkers" to get you going. He shows you how to put it together and gives tips on putting it into print if you so desire.

The price is $12.95 and is available from Writer's Digest Books, 9933 Alliance Rd., Cincinnati, OH 45242. Include $1.50 postage.

Incidentally, Mr. Thomas was being interviewed on a radio station in Lafayette, La. and gave the AGE a plug.

CORRECTIONS TO ARSENAULT'S HISTOIRE ET GENEALOGIE DES ACADIENS

(Corrections and additions are not claimed by AGE to be authentic; however, in most cases the submitter has researched the family group in question and has documented the information. Page references apply to his second edition published in 1978).

p. 1058 - Madeleine RICHARD, b. 1708, married Jean CORMIER at Beaubassin in 1733. Jean's mother is shown as CORMIER in Rieder II, p. 32. Pierre RICHARD, b. 1711, married Madeleine DOUCET, d/o Francois DOUCET. (same ref.) Marie RICHARD, d/o dec. Martin and of Marguerite BOURG, married Feb. 6, 1748 Jean QUESSI, s/o dec. Jean QUESSI/Cecile HEBERT. Witnesses were Pierre GAUTIER and Charles HEON. (same ref.)

CORRECTIONS FOR ACADIAN DESCENDANTS, VOL I

Mr. George Boudreau, 42 Seneca Dr., Montgomery, IL 60538 sent some corrections to page 43 of A.D. I.

I had shown only two children for Francois BOURG and Marguerite BOUDROT. Mr. Boudreau showed the following: Michel (1665); Marie (1668); Alexandre (1671); Magdeleine (1677); Pierre (1681); Anne (1683). Arsenault's edition had shown only Marie-Anne, Alexandre and Pierre. Apparently I should have shown Marie-Anne, b. 1668, as the one who married Pierre THIBODEAUX, since Anne would have been only seven years old at the time of Pierre's marriage.

Also, I had shown Charles BOUDROT as THIBODEAUX (married 1673 to Renee BOURG).

These records were given to me by a lady following a conference held at the American-Canadian Genealogical Society in Manchester, N.H. Unfortunately, I do not remember her name, but I thank her, and pass these records on to your readers, hoping they may help someone fill out their Acadian or French family charts.
